Call to Worship (Psalm 145)

Leader: Great is the Lord, and greatly to be praised; his greatness is unsearchable. One generation shall laud your works to another, and shall declare your mighty acts.

People: The Lord is good to all, and his compassion is over all that he has made.

Leader: The eyes of all look to you, and you give them their food in due season. You open your hand, satisfying the desire of every living thing.

People: My mouth will speak the praise of the Lord, and all flesh will bless his holy name forever and ever.

Opening Hymn No. 288

I Sing the Mighty Power of God

ELLACOMBE

Prayer of Confession

Almighty and merciful God, we have erred and strayed from your ways like lost sheep. We have followed too much the devices and desires of our own hearts. We have offended against your holy laws. We have left undone those things which we ought to have done; and we have done those things which we ought not to have done. O Lord, have mercy upon us. Spare those who confess their faults. Restore those who are penitent, according to your promises declared to the world in Christ Jesus our Lord. And grant, O merciful God, for his sake, that we may live a holy, just, and humble life to the glory of your holy name. Amen.

(A time of silence for personal confession)

The Assurance of God's Love and Forgiveness

Leader: Friends, believe the good news.

People: In Jesus Christ, we are forgiven.

Gloria Patri No. 579

GREATOREX

Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost;

As it was in the beginning, is now, and ever shall be, world without end. Amen, Amen.

The King of Love My Shepherd Is Chancel Choir

arr. Bairstow

The King of love my Shepherds is, whose goodness faileth never.
I nothing lack if I am his and he is mine forever.
Where streams of living waters flow my ransomed soul he leadeth;
And where the verdant pastures grow with food celestial feedeth.
In death's dark vale I fear no ill with thee, dear Lord, beside me;
Thy rod and staff my comfort still, thy cross before to guide me.
Thou spread'st a table in my sight, thy unction grace bestoweth.
And O what transport of delight from thy pure chalice floweth.
And so through all the length of days thy goodness faileth never.
Good shepherd, may I sing thy praise within thy house forever.

Doxology

OLD HUNDREDTH

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; Praise God, all creatures here below;
Praise God above ye heavenly host; Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost. Amen.

Sharing the Bread and Cup

8:30 All are invited to come forward in single lines. The bread comes first. You are invited to dip it in the chalice, eat it, and return to your seat until all have been served.

11:00 As we pass the bread, please minister to one another with the words, “This is Christ’s body, broken for you.” You may respond with “Amen.” Likewise, as we pass the cup, say the words, “This is Christ’s blood, shed for you.” You may again respond with “Amen.” After everyone has received each element, we will share them together.

Gluten-free communion wafers are available at all three services.

The flowers in the church are given to the glory of God

In loving memory of Lynn Palombo by her father, Dom Palombo
In loving memory of their parents by Carol Strobe and Joan Utter

During the Lord's Prayer workshop, 3rd grade children painted the Lord's Prayer banners hanging in worship today after discussing how color can be a symbol. The following describes our cooperative ideas of how this prayer translates into color.

"Our Father" — yellow, gold, and white to represent God as light

"who art in heaven" — the blues of the sky

"hallowed be thy name" — God is everlasting, so the green reminds us of evergreens

"thy kingdom come" — purple for royalty

"thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven" — browns for the earth

"give us this day our daily bread" — tans for bread

"forgive us our debts as we forgive our debtors" — the colors of metal as a reference to one type of debt

"lead us not into temptation" — black and reddish purples for sin and temptation

"but deliver us from evil" — reds

"for thine is the kingdom, the power and the glory forever. Amen." — the glory of God... yellows and golds

Dave Brown's memorial service will be held today at 4:00 p.m. in the sanctuary.

Dear friends,

Thanks to all of you who expressed good wishes both before and after my recent surgery and have kept me in prayer. I felt God's presence in many ways: the peace that I felt; the skill and compassion of my surgeon and the staff who assisted him; and the wealth of friends, such as you, who continue to bless my life. I am grateful for you and your care.

Sundays

9:45 a.m. in the Chapel

In Lent we reflect on death and resurrection. Each of us experiences death ranging from the deaths of those whom we love to the deaths represented by day-to-day losses like loss of a job, divorce, diminished health, etc. We may also find ourselves in the large company of people who prefer to avoid all talk and consideration of death. After all, it is more hopeful and pleasant to focus on resurrection. Regardless, as resurrection is real, so is death. How do life's many deaths affect us? How do we find comfort in the midst of those deaths? How does resurrection offer hope for the tomorrows beyond these deaths? What are the practical, daily implications of living in the tension between death and resurrection? How can we ritualize our deaths and celebrate resurrection? Come, join us as we explore these issues.

This curriculum uses the New International Version of the Bible as its chosen text. Younger Adults Room 238
A class for those in their 20s through 40s, led by Jim Gilchrist and others. Discussions range from Bible study to matters of faith and everyday life. The class meets the second and third Sundays of each month.

For Children

Sunday School News
Children 2½ through 4th grade will learn about the first miracle that Jesus performed – the wedding at Cana (John 2:1-11). Jesus, his mother, and his disciples were attending a wedding when the wine supply ran out. Mary told Jesus about the problem and told the servants to do whatever Jesus told them. Jesus told them to fill six stone jars with water. The servants didn't know what Jesus was going to do, but they trusted him and did what he told them. Jesus then told a servant to take a cup of the water to the man in charge. The nervous servant did as he was told. When the man drank from the cup, he said this was the best wine he had ever tasted! This was the first of many miracles performed by Jesus.

Lenten Thought Pots

Today, on the Third Sunday of Lent, the children are to place a rubber band in the pot. The rubber band will remind them this week that God always stretches his patience and that they should do the same for others – even when it isn't easy!

JAM

All 5th and 6th graders are invited to join us for JAM (Jesus and Me) youth group on Wednesdays from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m. in Room 257. Each week we talk about issues facing middle schoolers and how God helps and directs our lives through scripture. We always have lots of fun playing games. Dinner is served at 5:00 p.m. in the café. If you have questions, contact Jan Baumann at 412-835-6630 or baumann@westminster-church.org.

Rescue: Stories of Uncommon Courage SHIM Interfaith Holocaust Observance Service

During the Holocaust many ordinary people put themselves at great personal risk to help escaping Jews. Countless Jews showed extraordinary courage in seeking rescue. The question "would we do the same?" can never be answered in abstract. But by remembering these stories we contribute to the commitment: never again. Join others of faith for the SHIM Interfaith Holocaust Observance at Beth El Congregation of the South Hills on Sunday, April 25, at 7:30 p.m.

Recording of Services

CDs of the entire service are available on loan from the library, or if you wish to have a copy to keep, contact Peg Kinsey at 412-835-6630x211.

Westminster Connectors is dedicated to helping people connect with networking groups and employment opportunities. Contact Jeff Crummie at jcrummie@verizon.net or 412-897-7401 for further information.

Hospital Prayers

Praying for those who are in the hospital has always been an important aspect of the ministry of Westminster. Please contact Tammy Yeager or phone Peg Kinsey at 412-835-6630x211, and your church family will pray for you during your hospital stay and recovery time. Also, whenever a church member has undergone surgery or been hospitalized, a letter of good wishes is placed in the narthex for all members to sign. Please take a moment to sign the letter whether or not you know the person, and let them know we care and are praying for their good health.

Need Name Please

When phoning to notify the church of a death in the family, please provide the name of the deceased so that his/her name will appear in the bulletin and prayer lists.

Chancel Flowers

Beautiful flowers in the sanctuary on Sunday morning are a loving tribute to the life of a loved one who has gone to be with the Lord. For your convenience, the listing of available Sundays for flower memorials is posted in the hallway leading to the south breezeway. If you wish to remember a loved one with a memorial flower, please contact Janet Carson at 724-413-0125 or carsjl@msn.com.

Prayer is a powerful source of comfort and healing.

We invite you to bring to our attention those in need by filling out a prayer request card from the pews and putting it in the prayer request box on the table in the narthex or in the collection plates. A Westminster member is available to pray with you after the 8:30 and 11:00 a.m. services in the bridal room and in Room 304 after the Bridge. We invite you to become a member of our prayer team. The team meets for prayer on the first and third Tuesdays of every month in the Pub at Friendship Village from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. Prayer lists are distributed when the group does not meet. Please contact Tammy Yeager at 412-835-6630x216 or yeager@westminster-church.org for additional information.

Volunteer Opportunities

Veritas Small Group Leader

Come and get to know a great group of teens. Your presence is the best gift you can give them as they navigate their teen years. And, hang out with the other adults who are crazy enough to want to do the same.

Job: Lead a small group of high school boys once a month at Veritas where leaders will gather with their group and work through a series of questions.

Commitment: One night a month until May; training will be provided.

Compensation: You will be amazed at how much the students will actually feed and teach you!

Skills Needed: We're looking for men who have a desire to connect with young people on a personal level. We are NOT looking for biblical scholars, spiritual guides, or super-Christians.

We need people to invest in our congregation's future and allow an opportunity for our future to invest in us.

Annual Church-wide Lunch

Would you like to meet some other people in the congregation? Have you ever come to a church lunch and wished they had your favorite food on the menu? You can join the team planning the lunch.

Job: Plan and implement a lunch in Fellowship Hall for the congregation.

Commitment: Lunch date, Sunday, June 6 or 13 at noon (choice of the team); four hours for setup and prep; plus approximately three hours between now and June including one organizational meeting to plan and divide responsibilities.

Skills Needed: Joy in hospitality. Good organizational skills a plus. Guidelines and assistance provided, including information from last year.

This is a great opportunity for everyone in our church family to come together in fellowship. You can be part of the team that makes that possible.

Whole Foods = Whole Kids

March 17 & 24

Wednesdays: 9:15 - 10:15 a.m.

Do your kids think “nugget” is a part of a chicken? Is anything green shunned at the dinner table? Do you wish your kids would understand why healthy eating is important? If you struggle to get your kids to eat well, join Kathy Gillen for some whole food inspiration. The first week of this two-part class you’ll learn the importance of whole foods for kids. Is a piece of broccoli really better than one of the new vegetable/fruit juices? The dangers of additives and chemicals in processed foods and high amounts of sugar will also be discussed. You’ll sample creative after-school snacks and low-sugar treats. The second week of the class you’ll learn helpful tricks and tactics for those dinner time struggles. Learn how to inspire your kids and make eating well fun. You’ll sample “Deceptive Mac & Cheese” and “Hidden Greens Tacos.” As a mother of four, Kathy understands how difficult it can be to feed our busy families nutritious meals. Meal-planning tips will inspire you to shop differently and have fun with food.

Pocket Change Project

A Cherub Choir Initiative
Lent 2010

Our Goal:

To collect enough pocket change during the season of Lent to sponsor a child in Haiti for one year. Our gift will provide a quality education in a Christian environment, a hot meal every day, and the opportunity to commit their life and future to Jesus Christ our Lord.

Why pocket change?

Because we usually don't think very much about those small coins in our pockets and purses. But added up, all those small coins can have a tremendous impact on someone's life.

Why the Cherub Choir?

Because we usually don't think very much about how a group of small children can impact the world. But added up, a group of small children can have a tremendous impact.

Bottom Line:

A handful of small coins—collected by a handful of small children—can impact the life of just one small child in Haiti in a tremendous way. And our goal is to collect those coins because we know that ...

big change starts small.
