

OUR COUNSELORS

Kris Drucis, M.S.

Kris Drucis is a Licensed Marriage and Family Therapist. She received her undergraduate degree from Westminster College and her Masters in Science in Human Development, Counseling and Family Studies from the University of Rhode Island. Kris is a Clinical Member of the American Association of Marriage and Family Therapists and has 15 years experience providing family therapy. Prior to working at the Samaritan Counseling Center, she was a full-time supervisor of family therapists in an agency setting. She has also worked at Children's Hospital of Pittsburgh, the Pittsburgh Mediation Center, and has been an instructor at Duquesne University.

Ed Sutter, M.S. Ed.

Ed has been working with Samaritan since early 2012 when he began counseling as a graduate student from Duquesne University. Ed earned his Masters Degree in Education for Counseling in December of 2012. Ed has worked as a full-time youth pastor for Westminster Presbyterian since 2008; during that time he discovered a tremendous need in the lives of the students and families that he worked so closely with—and a passion for helping those very individuals! Ed has worked with youth, families, adults and couples.

Terry is a licensed psychologist, having received his Masters degree from Radford University and his Ph.D. from the University of Pittsburgh. He was the school psychologist/special education liaison for the Hampton Township Schools for 25 years. Terry also held clinical positions with Mayview State Hospital and the South Hills Health Systems Community Mental Health Center. He is an adjunct faculty member with Robert Morris and Penn State Universities. Terry is an ordained deacon and elder in the North Hills Christian Church. He has done work with grief counseling, mentoring of men, and working with couples and families.

COUNSELING

Counseling should always bring us closer to becoming the person God intends us to be. At the Westminster Samaritan Counseling Center, we work on bringing the many facets of a person's life into a harmonious union. We include the mental, emotional, physical, and spiritual dimensions of who you are. We help our clients gain skills that enable them to confront the realities of life, develop solutions to stressful situations and learn to maintain the growth achieved.

We believe that effective counseling takes place in a trusting relationship between client and counselor. Our therapists are caring professionals, dedicated to helping people grow beyond their present situations.

The Westminster Samaritan Counseling Center provides one-on-one counseling for adults, children, adolescents, couples, and families. We also provide spiritual direction, grief support services, group seminars, and retreats.

GETTING STARTED

At the Westminster Samaritan Counseling Center, counseling is provided by appointment only. We will assess your concern and discuss the ways we can assist you. In addition to daytime hours, some evening appointments are available.

FEES

A primary goal for us is that professional counseling be affordable without compromising quality, regardless of the client's ability to pay.

Many of our services are reimbursable using health care insurance. An adjusted fee can also be arranged, based on a family's gross income. The Samaritan Counseling Center is an ecumenical, non-profit corporation funded by fees for services and by contributions from churches, businesses, civic groups, individuals and foundations.

Contributions to our Client Aid Fund enable us to offer our services on an adjusted fee basis. If you would like to make a contribution to our center, please contact our main office at 412-854-4530.

COMMITTED TO EXCELLENCE

The Samaritan Counseling Center is fully accredited by the Samaritan Institute in Denver, Colorado, which is recognized by The American Medical Association, The President's Commission on Mental Health, The American Association of Pastoral Counselors, and major church denominations.

All of the therapists are state licensed and/or certified by a professional organization. All therapists have one or more Master's degrees and participate in continuing education, peer review and ongoing supervision. We have a consulting psychiatrist.

Our counselors are committed to uphold professional ethical standards which demand strict confidentiality and the utmost regard for the value of the client's time, finances and person.

OUR COUNSELORS

Casey Kasperik, , LPC, NCC

A Licensed Professional Counselor and National Certified Counselor, Casey Kasperik joined Samaritan's clinical team in February 2013.

Casey has an impressive background in the mental health field including work experience as a therapist at Mercy Behavioral Health. Throughout her career, she has also provided numerous services such as job training, assessments, development of behavioral and treatment plans, education/awareness and group psychotherapy.

Casey has counseled people from diverse socioeconomic, racial and ethnic backgrounds. She has extensive experience working with adults suffering from addiction and serious mental illness as well as with children afflicted with Autism and other disorders.

With a strong interest in mindfulness, wellness and spirituality, Casey often incorporates these techniques into her counseling sessions. Other areas in which Casey specializes include other mood disorders, dual diagnosis (mental illness and addiction), self-esteem/personal growth, abuse, trauma and relationship/interpersonal struggles.

Casey earned her Master's in Counseling Psychology from Chatham University and a Bachelor of Science in Psychology with Business Option from Penn State University.
